Course code: IPMAD

The course follows the course "Practical Project Management" and extends the theoretical knowledge of a project manager so that he is able to successfully complete the IPMA Level D test for project managers.

Who is the course for

Input This course is designed for project managers.

What we teach you

Course objectives:

- Understanding the terminology of project management according to IPMA
- Expanding the knowledge of the course Practical Project Management
- Preparation for Certification Exam

Benefits:

- Sync the terminology with the "National standards for project management"
- Practical training of project management processes
- Deepening knowledge of project managers according to the areas of competences

Teaching materials

Lecturer's materials related to the subject

Course outline

Introduction

The certification process

- Documentation
- Written exam
- Project Report
- Principles of IPMA

Technical competences

- Stakeholders
- Requirements and objectives
- Risk management
- Project team
- Time and its monitoring
- Resources and their control
- Changes

Behavioral competencies

- Management and leadership
- Motivation
- Conflicts and crisis
- Assertiveness
- Creativity
- Focus on project
- Implementation
- Support systems

GOPAS