Jira Advanced

Course code: ATL_JIRA2

Who is the course forThis course is meant for users with good knowledge of Jira who want to know more about functionality of the system and they want to prepare themselves for the role of system or project administrator.
Required skillsThe participant has long experience of working with Jira as a user or administrator.
Course outline   Differences between Jira   Core, Jira Software, Jira Service Desk   Types of   licencing   Types of administrators –   Jira admin, Project admin and Sys admin   Advanced projects –   categories, templates   Issue types – what is that,   how to use them   Complex workflows – creation,   automation   Custom fields – types of   custom fields, work with them   Components, labels and other   categorization tools   Screens – what is that, how   to use them   Issue security – how to work   with this tool   Project roles and groups–   their signifikance for correct set up of projects   Permissions – setting and   troubleshooting   Email notifications – setting   a troubleshooting

Who is the course for

This course is meant for users with good knowledge of Jira who want to know more about functionality of the system and they want to prepare themselves for the role of system or project administrator.

Required skills

The participant has long experience of working with Jira as a user or administrator.

Course outline

- Differences between Jira Core, Jira Software, Jira Service Desk
- Types of licencing
- Types of administrators – Jira admin, Project admin and Sys admin
- Advanced projects – categories, templates
- Issue types – what is that, how to use them
- Complex workflows – creation, automation
- Custom fields – types of custom fields, work with them
- Components, labels and other categorization tools
- Screens – what is that, how to use them
- Issue security – how to work with this tool
- Project roles and groups– their signifikance for correct set up of projects
- Permissions – setting and troubleshooting
- Email notifications – setting a troubleshooting